Bay, Long Beach tie 1-1 in opener

Pitcher Mike Strong turned in a stellar performance Tuesday afternoon giving up only four hits on Bay High and Long Beach went into the top of the 1-1 deadlock in the season's opener. The game was called on account of darkness.

Scheduled to be played at Bay High's diamond, the game was moved to Long Beach as the Tiger field was not ready.

The Tigers batted out six hits but couldn't bunch them except in the top of the fifth when shortstop Boogie Dean slammed a rebounding triple. Catching safely on third base he scored when first baseman Don Favre poked out a line drive that was dropped by the Long Beach left fielder.

In addition to Strong, Dean and Favre, coach Lance Lumberton used Perry Stephenson, catcher; Clonard Yarbrough, 1b; David Compton, 2b; Paul Wood, rf; Chris Cove, cf; and Tommie Martin, lf.

Martin slammed down a double but was left stranded. Strong, Randall joins high school all-star line

Kenny Randall, one of the best North Central's star athletes, is the latest nomination from this area for the annual Mississippi high school all-star football contest slated for Saturday night, July 30, in Mississippi Memorial Stadium at Jackson.

Deadlines for nominations for the trophy, which will pit the top gridiron men from North Mississippi against the South Mississippi team, are April 3, for all-stars, and April 10, for the Jackson Touchdown Club. Nominations may be made by coaches, school officials, sportswriters or fans. Only seniors who get their diplomas prior to July 30 are eligible.

Although only 5-10 and 160 pounds, 16-year-old Randall is a four-year letterman in football at ballback and quarterback. He made the All-Gulf Coast Conference team twice.

Turkey season opens Saturday

Gobbles, Gobbles, Gobbles. That's the sound that will be coming from the woods in Hancock County come dawn Saturday when turkey season opens. Turkey season is a time when all types of calls, snorts and other noises are made to attract the birds. They'll also be on the trees and in the fields. They'll be in the early morning chill and in the late afternoon. And maybe a couple of them will have a Tom into a hen's nest and drop him with a shotgun blast.

In Hancock County the turkey season will extend from April 2 through April 17. Only bearded turkeys will be legal game on open public hunting areas and in some forests. Bag limit is one gobbler per day but not more than two per season. Pile County's limit is one. According to the state Game and Fish Commission, the first rule a hunter should follow is to be a hunter. That means to be a hunter. There is always a danger of picking off a fellow hunter. Many hunters don't wait for daylight, casting down against a large tree, facing the direction they expect to hear a gobbler. They usually wear camouflage clothing, cover themselves with leaves or grass and carry a turkey call or they've been practicing on their own. Once they begin trying to call their prey they can hear, they barely move to blink their eyes. A gobbler in the woods of game.

When the hunting starts to within range, the hunter usually crouches off a short shot at the base of the bird's neck. If all his preparation has been right, if he is lucky, he will bring home a gobbler to prepare things with his family.

Track named as SSC specialty

Athletes at St. Stanislaus will concentrate on track this year according to athletic director, Brother Raymond Ruffin.

Incomplete schedule is April 14, Notre Dame, 20; Vicksburg, 20; May 2, Gulfport Invitational, with St. Vincent, and St. Martin. Coach is Harold Ruffin who joined the school's staff last year, from University of Southwestern.

ing to the February report just released by Andy J. Becker, county sales chairman.

In the first two months of 1966, Hancock has obtained 52.38 per cent of its $79,000 goal for the year. Last month's purchases were $10,916 for a total so far of $41,384.

Leading the drive in Hancock County with 101 per cent of its goal of $212,110.

Becker says he hopes Hancock will be on top when the next report comes out. He attributed much of the brisk sales to conversation from Marie H. to Marie H. bonds to foreign interest payments until later.

Every U.S. bond bought since Dec. 1, 1965, pays interest at a new higher rate of 4.15 per cent, compounded semi-annually when held to maturity. All older E and H bonds will earn 4 1/10 of one per cent more than before for the remaining period to next maturity, starting with the first interest paid of five months or more which began on or after Dec. 1, 1965.

New E bonds mature in only seven years—faster than ever before. H bonds mature in 10 years, as before, but semi-annual interest payments are faster.

Modify feed grain aid for soybean use

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has modified the 1966 Feed Grain Program to permit participants to plant soybeans on feed grain acreage and receive the price support payments they would have received if feed grain were planted. Domestic and export demand for soybeans has been increasing substantially since 1960.

Under the feed grain program, participants who divert 20 per cent of their feed grain base acreage to soybean production receive price support payments. These payments are based on the projected production at 50 per cent of their feed grain base acreage. The payment rates are 30 cents per bushel for corn, 20 cents per bushel for sorghum, 35 cents per bushel for milo, and 30 cents per bushel for grain sorghum.

Paulotto gets extension post for 4 counties

Less O. Paulotto, until recently associate county agent at Columbia, has been awarded an area resources development post at Gulfport.

He will cover Hancock, Harrison, Jackson and Pearl River counties, assuming duty April 1. Mr. Paulotto is the director of the Cooperative Extension Service at Mississippi State University. The need for such an agent in this area has long been felt, the director added.

Paulotto will help organizations and groups interested in planning and developing programs for area improvement such as tourism, recreation, industrial expansion, land use and community beautification. Training and area coordination will be directed in his work. He will work closely with other extension agents in the area.

The new area agent received his master's degree from Mississippi State University in 1952. Last summer he was director of the Mississippi Youth Corps project coordinated by the Extension Service. He joined the Marine County extension staff at Columbia in 1954.

Three summer residents, one living in Lymna subdivision on Blue Meadow Road and one in Waveland, reported to the Hancock County Sheriff's Office that their outboards were stolen from their homes on Friday.

Sheriff Luther investigated burglary of an outboard motor, number 8323-17-004, from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stewart, on Blue Meadow Road on Friday. A gas tank and outboard motor were also missing. It was estimated the items were stolen between March 16 and 20.

3 new buses bought for city schools

Low bid of Oak Chevrolet Co. for three school buses at $13,489 each was accepted by the Board of the Bay St. Louis Municipal Separate School District at a special meeting Tuesday night. The old bid was $13,443 each.

The buses will replace three old ones on Feb. 1, 3 and 4 and will be delivered in time for opening of the 1954-55 school year. The system operates six buses in all.

The board also authorized a contract for the purchase of a new bus on April 26 on equipment for the new high school and expansion of facilities of Waveland and Volusia C. Jones schools.

When the approval to spend up to $300 in expenditures was made for the school system.

W. B. Dearing, school superintendent, said that the school system can be expanded from the facility, which is a recent contract in Waveland, Ala. NASA agreed to supply the things. One was a letter to the Federal Aviation Authority outlining the passenger service to be provided to the facility and the other a letter to the Civil Aeronautics Board in Washington regarding a commercial airline in the vicinity. These two items had been completed.

Dearing also accepted a request from Southern Railway to be allowed to use the station for the school system. The school system is now a commercial service from the Hancock County field.

Other further discussion regarding the school system was held by the Municipal Aviation Commission, PAA and GAA. It was decided the school system would continue to operate and the school system would be a commercial service from the Hancock County field.

To ascertain the school system to be given the consideration and to combine a flow of information and direct communication between Washington and the school system, there was requested to make inquiry regarding the school system to the Federal Aviation Authority.

"Books are the money that pay for the future," said Dr. H. H. Hines, chairman of the Hines National Council, at a luncheon at the Hines Hotel, Bay St. Louis, today.

Hines National Council met today at the Hines Hotel, Bay St. Louis, for its annual meeting.

Dr. Hines told the audience that the average college graduate has a vocabulary of 40 to 50 thousand words, a high school graduate, 10 to 20 thousand and a five year old, about 100. "Ability to learn and read is what you don't have to teach in our vocabulary," he said.

At the risk of sounding a bit long, we must state that our expert on just about everything to do with nature, Maj. John McClellan, has come up with the suggestion that the rest of UFO's (Unidentified Flying Objects, of course), were most probably due to nothing more than a search for a new, more advanced form of life.

We prefer the term, will-o-the-wisp, or even Devil's Fire to describe the phenomenon. . . and anyone who has ever witnessed the sight of a ball of fire appearing from nowhere, dipping and dancing wildly through the moonlight, has a right to be sceptical. We recall once observing a ball of fire appearing in a dark field, only to be told that it was nothing more than a search for a new, more advanced form of life.

Falling temps explained

Good, we'll have to apologize for the cold weather, although it did not freeze. . . temperatures dropped pretty drastically. . . but there's a logical explanation, it was blackberry vines, of course. . . but in this case, it was blackberry vines, of course. . . but in this case, it was blackberry vines, of course.

Back to business

So much for that. . . now let's see what the few that haven't done had left, for or pneumonia, have been doing! Ray and Roger Boh and children, Gordon, Michael and Kathryn arrived Saturday for a weekend visit with Ray's parents, Marie and Ray Gordon. Little Kathryn celebrated her 3rd birthday while here and among her gifts was a lovely white truck daintily decorated with pale blue ribbons. The ensemble was made for her by her grandmother.

The family of embroidery, Marie (Mrs. Bert) Stiefel has taken up this form of needlework and turns out quite creditable work.

Complications go to brand new parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Turrent of 1 Pine Ridge Road in Waveland. The Turrents played their Piper Sue, born on Mar. 9, weighing eight pounds and three ounces, on March 15.

Ann and Henry Duvell celebrated their wedding anniversary on Mar. 15. We can't hazard a guess as to which one, because we always end up having a couple married about two years less than the age of their oldest child!

We'll welcome a newcomer as we bid farewell to Bud Bernal, who has been transferred to Mobile Homes Sales Center in Gadsden, New local manager to Ed Simmons.

Get well soon

So extensive to the sick list that we can't begin to begin. Hazel (Mrs. Emma) Demoreau you recall to Kansas General last Thursday; Carmen Mitchell arrived the same hospital Wednesday night for a course of rest. The St. Michaels, Betty, Rose and Lorraine, were all under the weather at the same time, but apparently have recovered. Ed Porter was under the weather as was Shirley (Mrs. Arch) Whitlow.

Bob Whitlow also had the same ailment. Lucile Lynch, too, of course, one of the walking victories; Joanne Mitchell had recovered but spent several days in Kansas General under treatment for pneumonia. Muriel (Mrs. John) Gower had all four, Bob, Muriel, Lucile and Joanne, very sick last week, but they are up and about again.

Animal notes

A reminder to all dog owners. . . if you don't put your dog's collar on before you go to work, you'll find it on the street. . . if you don't put your dog's collar on before you go to work, you'll find it on the street.

Proclamation

GOOD FRIDAY

Realizing the solemnity of the Memorial Day of Good Friday, and that the Christian World bows in sorrow and sympathy, commemorating the World's Greatest Tragedy, and that it is our duty and proper that our people, too, set aside their every day activities as far as possible and devote themselves to the observance of this day in a manner befitting the occasion.
